

IBM Digital Provider Agreement

BY ACCESSING, BROWSING, CLICKING ON AN "ACCEPT" BUTTON, OR OTHERWISE USING THE IBM DIGITAL COMMERCE PLATFORM, PROVIDER AGREES TO THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT INCLUDING APPLICABLE COUNTRY REQUIRED TERMS IN APPENDIX A. IF YOU ARE ACCEPTING THESE TERMS ON BEHALF OF PROVIDER, YOU REPRESENT AND WARRANT THAT YOU HAVE FULL AUTHORITY TO BIND PROVIDER TO THESE TERMS. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE TO THESE TERMS, DO NOT ACCESS, BROWSE, OR CLICK ON AN "ACCEPT" BUTTON.

This Digital Provider Agreement (the "Agreement") sets forth the terms and conditions under which Provider may offer one or more Products through an IBM digital commerce platform, such as IBM Marketplace or IBM Cloud (each such platform an "IBM Platform").

1. Agreement Structure

The complete agreement governing Provider's Product in the IBM Platform consists of this Agreement, including applicable country required terms in Appendix A, and any applicable attachments or addenda hereto. This Agreement governs all Products offered by Provider in an IBM Platform. This Agreement and applicable attachments supersede any prior agreements, discussions or representations regarding Provider's participation in an IBM Platform.

2. Definitions

Account Data – information that a Provider gives to IBM to enable Provider's use of the IBM Platform and/or Provider Workbench or information that IBM collects using tracking technologies, such as cookies and web beacons related to the Provider's use of the IBM Platform and/or Provider Workbench. Account Data does not include Business Contact Information (BCI) or personal data that IBM processes as a processor or sub-processor.

Affiliate – any entity that Controls, is Controlled by, or is under common Control with, a party to this Agreement. "Control" and its derivatives means: (a) the legal, beneficial, or equitable ownership, directly or indirectly, of at least fifty percent (50%) of the aggregate of all voting equity interests in an entity, (b) the right to direct its affairs, and/or (c) the right to control the composition of its board of directors or equivalent body.

Business Contact Information – information including name, business telephone, address, email and user IDs that a provider obtains or requires in order to enable legitimate business communications with Provider.

Error – a) any mistake, problem or defect ("bug") that causes a Product to malfunction or fail to meet its specifications; or b) any incorrect or incomplete statement or diagram in the related documentation that causes a Product to be materially inaccurate or inadequate.

IBM Brand Approval – approval from IBM that a Product is aligned with an IBM brand's offering portfolio, obtained as part of the onboarding process through Provider Workbench.

IBM Cloud – the IBM IaaS and PaaS offerings made available to customers under the IBM Cloud (formerly known as IBM Bluemix) brand through an IBM website and that include a catalog of IBM and non-IBM services available for use or purchase by those customers. IBM Cloud is currently available at <https://console.ng.bluemix.net>.

IBM Marketplace – the Internet environment hosted by or on behalf of IBM that includes: (i) the catalog of Products from IBM and Providers that are available to Users to acquire and use, available at <https://www.ibm.com/marketplace/cloud/us/en-us?lnk=mp> or a successor url; and (ii) associated tools provided by IBM such as Provider Workbench and Integration APIs.

Integrated Commerce Product – a product which (i) has undergone technical integration using Integration APIs to allow a User to access and/or purchase the Product through an IBM Platform and (ii) is aligned with IBM products or platforms as described in Section 3.1(d) of this Agreement.

Integration APIs – documented technical programming interfaces made available through Provider Workbench, including APIs for user management, provisioning, upgrade, downgrade, import and sync, or APIs for integrating with other IBM platforms or systems.

Net Revenue – the revenue recognized by IBM or an IBM Affiliate calculated using applicable discounts, refunds, offsets and other adjustments determined in accordance with the then current revenue recognition policies of IBM and its Affiliates and the controlling accounting principles, exclusive of applicable Taxes on the Product or the User's payments to IBM.

Product – a service, product or other asset, including without limitation, all versions of data, data sets, templates, software, and information, hypertext markup language files, scripts, programs, software development kits, recordings, sound, music, graphics, images, applets, or servlets made available by Provider electronically to Users in an IBM Platform or directly from Provider through the Referral Program.

Product Fees -- the fees, if any, determined by the Provider in its sole discretion, associated with the use of a Product by a User.

Provider – the non-IBM party to this Agreement who has accepted the terms of this Agreement and makes its Product or Products available in an IBM Platform.

Provider Fees – the fees payable by IBM to Provider under this Agreement, as set forth in Section 6.1 of this Agreement.

Provider Material – Provider's trademarks, Product information and content, and other promotional material, documentation, and other information related to the Product.

Provider Workbench ("PWB") – the cloud based tooling and system made available to Providers through a self-service portal which enables Provider to create and manage its Product listings in the applicable IBM Platform.

Referral Program – the IBM Platform program in which Provider may participate on a Product by Product basis, whereby the User can be directed to Provider's website for Product and purchase transactions instead of a User accessing and/or purchasing the Product through an IBM Platform.

Support – software maintenance, updates, upgrades, technical support and service provided by Provider electronically to a User when a possible Error is identified in Provider's Product.

Taxes – any and all applicable taxes, charges, fees, levies or other assessments imposed or collected by any governmental entity worldwide or any political subdivision thereof and however designated or levied upon or with respect to the transactions and/or payments to be made under or in connection with this Agreement, including without limitation sales, use, transfer, goods and services or value added tax or any other duties or fees; exclusive, however, of any taxes imposed upon the net income or capital of the Provider and any taxes in lieu of such net income taxes and any other taxes which are to be borne by the Provider under law.

User – a user of an IBM Platform that accesses the Products.

3. Product and Product Listings

3.1 Product Criteria

Each Product must meet the following criteria in order to be published in the IBM Platform:

- a) The Product and Product listing shall be at all times in compliance with all applicable legal requirements in all countries where the IBM Platform is available, including without limitation the European General Data Protection Regulation (EU/2016/679) ("GDPR");
- b) The Product listing made available on the IBM Platform must not refer to or promote the Product on another cloud environment where it may be usable. For any Integrated Commerce Product, Provider must provide IBM with links to the end user terms (for example, terms of service or an end user license agreement) and privacy policy for the Product;
- c) The Product API library (if applicable) is exposed to Users;
- d) The Product cannot be dependent upon any IBM offering that has been withdrawn from support; and
- e) As the IBM Platform expands to include local geographic communities within the IBM Platform, there may be additional requirements and selection criteria that the Product will need to be meet in order to participate in such geographic community. All geographic communities require Products to be sold to Users in local currency and local language.

3.2 Product Listing and Publication

Provider will work cooperatively with IBM to publish its Product listing within ninety (90) days of entering into this Agreement using the tools and process provided within Provider Workbench (PWB). Provider is responsible for all content it uploads into PWB, including any Provider Material, which comprises the Product listing. Provider shall obtain all necessary licenses and consents needed to create and publish the Product listing in the IBM Platform. The Product listing shall contain a live up-to-date hyperlink at which the User shall be able to try without charge on a temporary basis, receive Product credentials, and/or purchase the Product, or if the foregoing is unavailable as an online transaction, the User shall be directed to an appropriate business contact to assist the User in completing the Product transaction directly from the Provider. Each Product will be either (i) an Integrated Commerce Product, including support for single sign on, or (ii) part of the Referral Program.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, IBM has the right but not the obligation to review and approve the Product, Product listing and integration compliance before such Product or Provider Material is made available to Users. IBM's review, approval, and/or publication of a Product listing will not relieve Provider of responsibility for: (i) developing Products that are safe, free of defects in design and operation, (ii) compliance with applicable laws and regulations, or (iii) any documentation, Support, or warranty of the Product. IBM may require updates or make changes to the Product listing before publishing the Product listing to the applicable IBM Platform as necessary to maintain overall consistency and integrity of the IBM Platform. IBM will notify Provider of any changes required to the Product listing if the Product listing is already published on an IBM Platform. If Provider does not accept IBM's proposed changes to the Product listing, Provider may choose to withdraw the Product listing from the IBM Platform as set forth in Section 10 of this Agreement.

If a Product listing is published in one IBM Platform, Provider may have the opportunity to also include that Product listing in other IBM Platform catalogs, upon the parties' mutual agreement.

3.3 Listing Duration

Provider shall make the Product listings available on the applicable IBM Platform for a minimum of one year. Provider may remove the Product listing from such IBM Platform upon the one-year anniversary of its publication.

3.4 Support

Provider is solely responsible for all Errors or issues associated with its Product and for providing all Support for its Product for as long as the Product listing is offered on the IBM Platform. Provider must provide the following minimum methods for Support documented in the "Support" section of the Product listing: (i) Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) or Getting Started information for Users; and (ii) email support (or web form). The following Support methods are recommended and may be required in the future: (i) forum; and (ii) searchable knowledge base. Additional customer support options, such as phone, web ticketing, or chat may be provided at Provider discretion.

IBM will provide support to Provider and Users for the IBM Platform. IBM will provide contact information for support for the IBM Platform.

In the event IBM receives a support inquiry related to Provider's Product, IBM will either contact the Provider or will direct the User to contact Provider directly.

3.5 End User Terms

In each Product listing, Provider will provide all applicable terms of use and/or end user license agreements and all use of the Products will be subject to such terms of use and/or end user license agreement. All licenses or terms of use governing Products will be directly between the applicable User and Provider. IBM is not a party to such license or terms of use; however, IBM reserves the right in its sole discretion to review Provider's terms of use or end user license agreement and suspend or remove the Product listing if IBM deems such terms of use or end user license agreement to be inadequate.

At a minimum, the terms of use or end user license agreements will:

- a) grant Users the right to use Provider's Product;
- b) for Integrated Commerce Products only, specify that IBM's billing and payment terms apply rather than Provider's;
- c) set forth Provider's security and privacy policies;
- d) not impose any requirements or liability upon IBM; and
- e) If the Product is hosted, or includes hosted components, Provider must disclose the country in which the Product is hosted and where data is stored, such that Users can determine how to comply with laws, regulations, or policies governing the use and transfer of data.

In addition to Provider's terms of use or end user license agreement, a User which purchases a subscription or license to an Integrated Commerce Product must agree to IBM's standard terms for a third party offering, which set forth terms related to order fulfillment, charges, payment and taxes. Such terms explicitly state that (i) the Integrated Commerce Product is provided by a third party provider (not IBM), (ii) the terms of the applicable third party provider agreement apply for use of such Integrated Commerce Product, and (iii) IBM is not a party to any such third party provider agreement or responsible for the delivery or use of the Integrated Commerce Product.

3.6 Provider Workbench

PWB is only available to Provider during the Term of this Agreement and only for the limited purpose of creation and publication of Product listings pursuant to the terms herein. Provider shall be entirely responsible for its personnel to whom it designates administrative access for each Product listing and Provider shall ensure such personnel shall comply with the terms of this Agreement. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement, all content within PWB shall be deleted. Provider is responsible for removing any proprietary content Provider wishes to retain prior to such expiration or termination. IBM is under no obligation to offer migration capabilities or services.

PWB is not designed to comply with any specific governmental regulation or specific security measures. Provider agrees not to input Provider Material that may result in non-compliance with applicable regulations or required additional security measures. Provider is solely responsible for all necessary third party permissions and consents (including any consents of data subjects for use of personal data required to comply with applicable privacy laws or regulations, including but not limited to the GDPR) to include its Provider Material in PWB and Provider grants IBM permission to use, store and process the Provider Material in the delivery of PWB and the applicable IBM Platform.

Use of PWB in a production environment or for commercial or production purposes, or for performance stress testing, is not permitted. PWB may only provide a limited set of features and functions. PWB is provided "AS IS" without warranties of any kind. IBM does not warrant uninterrupted or error-free operation of PWB or that IBM will correct all defects or prevent third party disruptions or unauthorized third party access. Subject to any statutory warranties that cannot be excluded, IBM makes no other warranties or conditions, express or implied, regarding PWB or support thereof, if any, including, but not limited to, any implied warranties or conditions of merchantability, satisfactory quality, fitness for a particular purpose, title, or non-infringement.

3.7 IBM Brand Approval

This Section 3.7 applies only to Product listings published on the IBM Marketplace. Listings published in the IBM Cloud Catalog or other IBM Platform do not require IBM Brand Approval and are not subject to this Section 3.7.

Provider must obtain IBM Brand Approval to onboard any Product to the IBM Marketplace on or after April 22, 2019. Product listings published on the IBM Marketplace before April 22, 2019, or listings for which the onboarding process commenced before April 22, 2019, are not currently subject to IBM Brand Approval requirements; however, IBM will notify Providers with such listings if this changes.

4. Responsibilities

4.1 Provider Responsibilities

Provider will:

- a) ensure that the Product performs to the level described, and any statements made for references, Support capability, performance, security, service level agreements, or other business or technical capabilities are accurate and supported by Provider;
- b) be responsible for development, implementation, full testing, and management of the Product and all costs associated therewith;
- c) be responsible for providing Support to its enterprise customers as described in Section 3.4 of this Agreement;
- d) be responsible for creating and maintaining Provider Material regarding the Product. Provider will review and update, as necessary, all Product listings at least annually. If Provider does not review and update its Product listing(s) annually, IBM may remove or suspend the applicable listing;
- e) for any Product that is part of the Referral Program, maintain a website and offer digital sales and marketing support for such Product(s);
- f) securely manage i) any customer information received from Users, ii) passwords for Users and iii) any other access identifications or credentials used for its Product, and ensure that none of the foregoing is provided to IBM except as may be required for IBM to fulfill an order for an Integrated Commerce Product as described in this Agreement;
- g) maintain physical, technical and administrative security procedures and practices equal to or better than industry standards for ensuring protection of the Product, including content stored in the Product, from unauthorized access, destruction, use, modification or disclosure;

- h) for Integrated Commerce Products, receive User order details and within two (2) days (i) provision User's account, and (ii) provide information to User and IBM to enable User to access and use the Product, including information regarding service entitlement, access requirements and service credentials;
- i) not use the IBM Platform for unlawful, obscene, offensive or fraudulent purpose or activity, such as advocating or causing harm, interfering with or violating the integrity or security of a network or system, evading filters, sending unsolicited, abusive, or deceptive messages, viruses or harmful code, or violating third party rights;
- j) not include any confidential information in the IBM Platform or its Product listing;
- k) not perform any technical security test, penetration test, or vulnerability scan of the IBM Platform;
- l) during the term and for two years thereafter, maintain internal and external records, including written contracts with its Users for the Products, and upon IBM's reasonable written request, provide IBM with adequate documentation to confirm Provider's compliance with this Agreement; and
- m) obtain all necessary consent to use, provide, store and process Provider Material, including but not limited to consent of data subjects necessary to comply with data privacy laws such as GDPR, if applicable, and will grant IBM permission to do the same.

4.2 IBM Responsibilities

IBM will:

- a) provide reasonable technical assistance as required for creating the Product listing in the IBM Platform and, if applicable, integrating the Product with the Integration APIs;
- b) Review request for IBM Brand Approval within a reasonable time after such request is submitted through PWB;
- c) review and publish the Product listing to the IBM Platform if approved by IBM, as described in Section 3 of the Agreement;
- d) provide Users with access to Provider's terms of use or end user license agreement for an Integrated Commerce Product at or before the time of purchase;
- e) For an Integrated Commerce Product, (i) enable Users to order a license, subscription, or otherwise access the Product on the IBM Platform, (ii) submit details for any such orders to Provider to enable Provider to provision an account, (iii) bill Users for use of such Product, (iv) collect Product Fees, if any, remitted from Users for use of such Product; and (v) pay Provider the Provider Fees, if any, as described in Section 6.1 of this Agreement;
- f) provide notice to Provider if the terms and conditions of this Agreement change;
- g) provide physical access security for the IBM Platform; and
- h) provide User access and authorization controls for the IBM Platform.

5. License Grants

5.1 License Grants to IBM

5.1.1 Right to Publish Product Listing and Use Provider Material

Provider grants IBM and its Affiliates a worldwide, royalty free, fully-paid up, non-transferrable, non-exclusive right and license to 1) take all actions necessary to publish its Product listing and all applicable Provider Material in the IBM Platform, including testing to ensure proper integration of the Product listing, 2) use Provider Material anywhere within the IBM Platform, and 3) make non-material changes to the Product listing or Provider Material such as correcting typos, grammatical errors or broken urls.

5.1.2 License Grant for Integrated Commerce Products Only Provider grants IBM a worldwide , royalty-free, fully-paid up, non-transferable, non-exclusive right, directly or through its Affiliates, or its or their distributors including without limitation IBM business partners, to offer and sell Integrated Commerce Product subscriptions or licenses, as applicable, to Users through any sales channel, including face to face sales or via IBM business partners, and to enable such Users and their authorized personnel or authorized third parties to access and use the Integrated Commerce Product for productive uses.

5.1.3 Intellectual Property Ownership

IBM acknowledges that the Product and Provider Material is solely the property of Provider and its licensors, and nothing in this Agreement confers upon IBM any intellectual property rights in the Product or Provider Material except as explicitly set forth herein.

5.2 License Grant to Provider

During the term of this Agreement, IBM grants Provider a worldwide, non-exclusive, paidup right and license to access and use PWB and any Integration APIs and related documentation made available by IBM through the IBM Platform for the sole purpose of integrating Provider's Product listings into the IBM Platform for access by Users.

Except as set forth in this Section, IBM and its licensors retain exclusive right, title and interest in and to (a) the IBM Platform, (b) all visual interfaces, text, graphics and other content included on the IBM Platform; (c) all underlying technology, software, data, and other materials that implement and/or operate the IBM Platform (including PWB and Integration APIs if applicable); (d) any and all modifications and enhancements and derivative works made to (a) through (d); and (e) any and all intellectual property rights in or related to (a) through (d).

6. Fees

6.1 Fees for Integrated Commerce Products

For Integrated Commerce Products, Provider will determine, in its sole discretion, the Product Fees excluding applicable Taxes, using the payment plan options available in PWB. In countries where IBM is responsible under applicable laws for reporting and remitting Taxes to tax authorities on the provision of Integrated Commerce Products to Users, IBM will determine the rate of Taxes to be added to the Product Fees and charged to the User. The party responsible under applicable local laws for reporting and remitting Taxes to the tax authorities on the provision of Integrated Commerce Products to the User assumes the responsibility to issue a tax compliant invoice to the User.

IBM will be responsible for billing Users the Product Fees and collecting any payment remitting from Users, including all applicable Taxes in countries where IBM is responsible for reporting and remitting Taxes to the tax authorities.

Upon IBM's receipt of payment from Users and where applicable laws require, subject to IBM's receipt of a valid tax invoice from the Provider, payment of Provider Fees will be made within sixty (60) days after the close of each calendar quarter, unless the last day of the quarter falls on a weekend or holiday, in which case it will then be made by the next business day. All payments will be made in local currency.

Provider Fee payments, if any, will be calculated based on the Net Revenue in the applicable calendar quarter for the licenses or subscriptions to, and/or access and use of, the Product. Provider Fees shall equal eighty percent (80%) of the Net Revenue of Product Fees for a given calendar quarter, less: i) any non-refundable and/or non-creditable taxes or other government levies withheld on or deducted from payments made by Users to IBM; ii) any non-refundable and/or non-creditable taxes or other government levies applicable to, withheld on or deducted from payments or charges made by IBM affiliates to the IBM entity responsible for paying the Provider Fee to the Provider; and (iii) any non-refundable and/or non-creditable taxes or other government levies applicable to, withheld on or deducted from payments between IBM Affiliates for use of the IBM Platform related to this Agreement.

Provider Fees will be paid less adjustments and refunds due to IBM. For example, if a User fails to pay all or a portion of the Product Fees due, IBM may adjust Provider Fees for the applicable quarter.

Provider will provide any usage information for a Product subscription reasonably necessary for IBM to collect the Product Fees from Users of such Product.

6.2 Fees for Referral Program Products

For Products which are part of the Referral Program (i.e., Products which are not Integrated Commerce Products), Provider shall be solely responsible for the charging and collection of any and all Product Fees and shall enter into terms of use or license agreements, which shall include billing and payment terms, directly with each User. The Provider is further responsible for calculating, collecting, reporting and remitting any and all taxes and duties assessed, incurred or required to be collected or paid for any reason to a tax authority or similar government agency in connection with the sale by the Provider of Referral Program Products to the User. IBM shall have no responsibility for any of the foregoing.

Currently, Provider does not owe IBM a percentage of the Product Fees generated through the Referral Program; however, at any time with ninety (90) days' written notice to Provider, IBM may implement a referral fee which shall apply to Referral Program Products. Upon receiving notice, Provider may remove any Product listing from an IBM Platform, notwithstanding Section 3.3 (Listing Duration), if Provider chooses not to pay the applicable referral fee. Continued usage of the IBM Platform after the 90-day notice period means Provider accepts the change.

As requested by IBM in writing, Provider may be required to track and provide IBM with certain Product data, including a report on the total number of leads generated through the Provider's Referral Program Product, as well as the number of leads that resulted in the purchase of a Product licensed or subscription.

6.3 Refunds and Credits for Integrated Commerce Products

For Integrated Commerce Products, IBM will be the contact for refunds, credits and billing disputes from Users. IBM will make decisions regarding credits and refunds in its sole discretion, and will inform the Provider in the case a credit or refund is issued.

If IBM provides a refund or credit to a User, IBM will make appropriate adjustments to the Provider Fees and any applicable tax payments to reflect the credit or refund.

7. User Complaints

Provider will be responsible for receiving, handling, and resolving all User complaints about the Product, including complaints regarding service level agreements, performance, outages, response times, features and function of the Product, and any other User satisfaction issues for the Products. Provider shall respond to all User complaints and other inquiries in a timely manner.

8. Taxes

Each party is responsible for complying with the collection, payment and reporting of all Taxes imposed by any governmental authority applicable to its activities in connection with the sale, lease, delivery or usage of a Product under this Agreement. All charges between IBM and the Provider are exclusive of applicable Taxes. If any Taxes are payable in relation to these supplies (i) the applicable Taxes shall be added to any charges payable; (ii) payee shall issue an invoice or other billing documentation to the payor that complies with applicable tax laws; (iii) as applicable, payor shall pay or reimburse the amounts of such Taxes on or before the due dates for satisfaction of such invoices.

Situations may arise where governmental authorities require IBM to withhold from amounts collected from Users for payment to the Provider. In such cases, IBM may withhold the amount of Taxes due from payments to be made to the Provider under this Agreement and remit the net proceeds thereof. IBM agrees to timely remit all Taxes withheld to the appropriate governmental authority. Upon request, IBM will provide the Provider with documentation evidencing the withholding amount. For fulfillment of Integrated Commerce Products, Provider agrees no tangible personal property (including media and publications) will be delivered to Users. As necessary to support either of the parties' compliance with local tax laws and regulations (including Tax and currency regulations), protect commercial relationships with the User and mitigate tax costs and risks, the parties agree as follows:

- a) Prior to the adoption of the Integrated Commerce Product sales model, the parties will execute any further contract, invoice and tax terms needed to support IBM invoicing and collecting payment for Provider services in each of the in-scope sales countries.
- b) Further contract, invoice and tax terms may include without limitation, adoption of a reseller agreement/model between the parties, local contracting between Provider and IBM overseas Affiliates and the execution of tax agency arrangements between Provider and IBM overseas Affiliates.

c) Any further contract, invoice and tax terms will be mutually agreed by the parties.

9. Compliance

9.1 Export Laws

Provider will comply with import, export control and economic sanction laws and regulations, including those of the United States, that prohibit or restrict the export, re-export, or transfer of products, technology, services or data, directly or indirectly, to or for certain countries, end uses or end users. Provider will not export, directly or indirectly, any technology, software or commodities provided by IBM under this Agreement to any prohibited destination or for any prohibited end use. Provider will provide IBM with information about Products necessary for export compliance.

Provider acknowledges that IBM may use global resources (non-permanent residents used locally and personnel in locations worldwide) to remotely support the delivery of the IBM Platform. Upon request, Provider will provide to IBM the classification of the Product under the U.S. Export Administration Regulations and reasonably work with IBM to ensure compliance with applicable export controls based on this classification.

9.2 Compliance with Laws

Provider and IBM will each comply with all applicable laws and regulations, including, without limitation, the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and the applicable anti-bribery laws and laws governing transactions with government and public entities, antitrust and competition laws, applicable insider trading, securities, and financial reporting laws, laws governing consumer transactions, and laws regarding data privacy, including GDPR if applicable.

9.3 Ethical Dealings

Provider will be familiar and will strictly comply with all laws and regulations on bribery, corruption, and prohibited business practices. Provider and its Affiliates have not and will not, for the purpose of influencing or inducing anyone to influence decisions in favor of IBM or its Affiliates, offer, promise or make or agree to make, directly or indirectly, (a) any political contributions of any kind or any payment to or for the benefit of any public official, whether elected or appointed, (b) any payments for gifts, meals, travel or other value for a government employee or his/her family members or (c) any payments or gifts (of money or anything of value) to anyone. IBM shall not reimburse Provider for any such political contributions, payments or gifts.

9.4 Data Protection

9.4.1. Business Contact Information

IBM and its affiliates, and their contractors and subprocessors, may, wherever they do business, store and otherwise process Business Contact Information (BCI) of Provider, its personnel and authorized users for business dealings with them. Where notice to or consent by the individuals is required for such processing, Provider will notify and obtain consent.

9.4.2. Account Data

IBM and its affiliates, and their contractors and sub-processors, may use Account Data for example to enable product features, administer use, personalize experience, and otherwise support or improve use of the IBM Platform. The IBM Online Privacy Statement at <https://www.ibm.com/privacy/details/us/en/> provides additional details.

9.4.3. Processing of personal data on Provides behalf

If and to the extent (a) IBM is processing personal data on behalf of Provider and (b) the GDPR applies to such processing of personal data, IBM's Data Processing Addendum (DPA) at www.ibm.com/dpa and the applicable DPA Exhibit at <https://ibm.biz/ProviderDPAExhibit> apply and supplement the Agreement.

IBM may use processors and subprocessors (including personnel and resources) in locations worldwide to deliver the IBM Platform. IBM may transfer Provider's personal data across country borders including outside the European Economic Area (EEA).

10. Term and Termination

10.1 Term

This Agreement is effective upon acceptance by the Provider and will remain in effect as long as Provider offers one or more Products on the IBM Platform, unless terminated earlier as described below. Upon termination, IBM may remove all Provider's listings from the IBM Platform.

10.2 Termination

- a) IBM may terminate this Agreement for any reason or no reason with ninety (90) days written notice to Provider.
- b) Either party may terminate this Agreement for the other party's breach of this Agreement upon thirty (30) days written notice to the breaching party, provided the breaching party is unable to cure such breach within thirty (30) days.
- c) Provider may terminate this Agreement for any reason or no reason with ninety (90) days written notice to IBM after offering the Product listing in the IBM Platform for one (1) year as set forth in Section 3.3.
- d) Notwithstanding the terms of Section 3.3, Provider may terminate this Agreement and remove the Product listing from the IBM Platform if Provider provides IBM with ninety (90) days written notice and:
 - i. IBM fails to pay Provider as set forth in Section 6 (Fees) and such failure to pay is not cured within ninety (90) days, or
 - ii. Provider withdraws the Product from any and all public offerings, or
 - iii. IBM materially changes the terms of this Agreement and Provider does not agree to such changes.

11. Suspension and Removal

- a) IBM may suspend (i.e. temporarily “hide” the Product listing from public view) or remove a Product listing from the IBM Platform at any time in IBM’s sole discretion. If IBM suspends or removes the Product listing pursuant to this paragraph (a), IBM shall provide Provider with written notice and explanation of its suspension or removal.
- b) If IBM suspends the Product listing due to Provider’s breach of this Agreement, misappropriation of IBM or third party intellectual property or violation of applicable law or regulation, Provider shall be provided with thirty (30) days’ notice to resolve or cure any such breach, misappropriation, or violation. At the end of such thirty (30) day period, IBM shall either (i) restore the Product listing if such breach, misappropriation or violation is resolved to IBM’s satisfaction, or (ii) remove the Product listing from the IBM Platform, provided that if such Product listing is removed by IBM, IBM shall provide Provider with written notice and explanation of its removal.
- c) Provider may suspend or remove Provider’s Product listing from the IBM Platform upon ninety (90) days prior written notice to IBM after offering the Product on the IBM Platform for one (1) year as set forth in Section 3.3.

12. Confidentiality

Unless the parties mutually agree to exchange confidential information under a separate confidentiality agreement, all information they exchange is non-confidential, including any content processed by or uploaded to the IBM Platform, including PWB. Neither party shall disclose the terms of this Agreement to any third party without the other party's prior written consent, except to the extent necessary to establish each party's rights hereunder, or, as required by applicable law or regulations.

13. Representations and Warranties

Provider represents and warrants that:

- a) Provider has the necessary rights in and to the Product (including associated marks and names) to grant IBM the rights specified in this Agreement, and to grant Users the rights specified in the Provider's terms of use or end user license agreement, as applicable;
- b) the Product conforms to its specifications;
- c) the Product is safe for use with, and will comply with, the warranties and requirements in this Agreement;
- d) any written representations made, or information provided, by Provider to IBM or Users is true and accurate;
- e) neither the Product nor the Provider Material infringes any privacy, intellectual property or other right of a third party;
- f) the Product does not contain harmful code; and
- g) Provider has complied with any and all requirements relating to any and all third party or open source software included in the Product, including all licensing agreements applicable to such third party or open source code.

EXCEPT AS SPECIFICALLY PROVIDED IN THIS AGREEMENT, NEITHER PARTY, NOR THEIR RESPECTIVE SUPPLIERS, MAKES ANY WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. NEITHER IBM NOR ITS SUPPLIERS MAKE ANY WARRANTIES THAT ANY PARTICULAR RESULTS WILL BE DERIVED FROM THE USE OF THE IBM PLATFORM OR ANY DELIVERABLES OR SERVICES PROVIDED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT.

14. Indemnification

Provider will defend, indemnify and hold IBM and its Affiliates harmless with respect to any third party claims (a) related to its Product(s) or Provider Material or (b) related to or arising from Provider's breach of Section 4.1(m) or Section 9.4 of this Agreement, in each case provided IBM promptly (i) notifies Provider in writing of the claim, (ii) supplies information reasonably requested by Provider, and (iii) allows Provider to control and reasonably cooperates in the defense and settlement, including mitigation efforts at Provider's expense; however, IBM may participate in the proceedings at its option and expense.

Provider will defend, indemnify, and hold IBM and its Affiliates harmless with respect to third party claims concerning payment of any Taxes imposed in connection with any transaction, and with respect to any fine imposed by a government authority as a result of Provider's failure to remit or report any such Taxes in connection with Referral Program or Integrated Commerce Products, including joint and several liability provisions that result in tax assessments being levied on IBM and its Affiliates as a result of an act or omission by Provider.

15. Limitation of Liability

15.1 Limitation of Liability

Except as expressly set forth in Section 15.2 of this Agreement, each party's entire liability for all claims in the aggregate arising from or in connection to the IBM Platform, a Product listing, or this Agreement will not exceed the amount of any 1) damages for bodily injury (including death) and damage to real property and tangible personal property and 2) other actual direct damages up to $10,000.00, regardless of the basis of the claim. This limit applies collectively to each party and each party's Affiliates and contractors. Neither party, nor its suppliers, will be liable for special, incidental, exemplary, indirect or economic consequential damages; lost profits, business, revenue, goodwill, anticipated savings; loss of, or damage to, data (including personal data); or network failure or interruption.

PROVIDER UNDERSTANDS AND AGREES IBM HAS NO LIABILITY TO PROVIDER FOR MISUSE BY USERS OF PRODUCTS THAT ARE MADE AVAILABLE AS PART OF THE IBM PLATFORM.

15.2 Damages Excluded from Limitation of Liability

The foregoing limitations and disclaimers of liability shall not apply to (1) the liability of either party for damages associated with its infringement or violation of the intellectual property rights of the other party or its licensors or (2) claims arising under Section 14 of this Agreement.

16. Marketing Rights

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Provider grants IBM and its Affiliates a worldwide, royalty free, fully-paid up, non-transferrable, non-exclusive right and license to use Provider's name and logo, and Product name and/or logo in the parties' web sites, external presentations, advertising, and marketing materials for the IBM Platform. IBM will not display Provider's name and logo in an inaccurate, derogatory, confusing or misleading manner, and Provider may require IBM to correct or remove inappropriate uses of their name and logo. Except as expressly provided herein, IBM does not acquire any rights in Provider's name or logo.

For so long as this Agreement remains in effect, Provider may reference the fact that Provider is a Provider in press releases and promotional materials in support of the Product, and for general promotion purposes.

Provider will not reference IBM's name in an inaccurate, derogatory, confusing or misleading manner. Provider may not use IBM trademarks without the express written consent of IBM.

Neither party shall make any statements in connection with the use of either party's name and/or logo to suggest, state or imply that either party warrants the other's products or is the source of, uses, or services the other's products.

a) Each party grants the other only the licenses and rights specified. No other licenses or rights (including licenses or rights under patents) are granted.

b) In the event that IBM receives a notice of copyright infringement concerning the Products, where the notice conforms to the then current requirements of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA), IBM will immediately suspend the Products listing in the IBM Platform. In the event IBM takes such action, Provider may provide a counter notice to IBM which conforms to the then current requirements of the DMCA and IBM will, in its sole discretion, restore the Products to the IBM Platform. If IBM receives a notice of copyright infringement concerning the material a User stores in the Product, IBM will refer the notice to the Provider for action. IBM's current policy regarding the DMCA and its requirements can be found at <http://www.ibm.com/legal/us/en/dmca.html>. In the event the DMCA is amended, IBM will modify the referenced url to reflect such changes. In the event of a discrepancy between the IBM website and the DMCA, the DMCA will prevail. IBM disclaims all responsibility for lost profit and/or revenue during the period in which the Products are removed or suspended.

c) The laws of the State of New York govern the rights, duties, and obligations arising from, or relating in any manner to, the subject matter of this Agreement, without regard to its conflict of law principles.

d) Any notice required or permitted under this Agreement will be sent to the representatives set forth by both parties. IBM contact information will be listed in the IBM Platform. Provider contact information will be included in the Product listing.

- e) If any term of this Agreement is found to be unenforceable in any respect, the validity of the remainder of the Agreement will be unaffected.
- f) A waiver of any right under this Agreement must be in writing signed by the party waiving its right. A waiver by either party of any instance of the other party's noncompliance with any obligation under this Agreement will not be deemed a waiver of subsequent instances.
- g) Provider may not assign this Agreement, in whole or in part, without IBM's prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. IBM may assign its rights or delegate or subcontract its duties under this Agreement to third parties or an IBM Affiliate without the prior written consent of Provider. Any unauthorized assignment of this Agreement is void.
- h) Any terms of this Agreement, which by their nature extend beyond the date this Agreement ends, remain in effect until fulfilled and apply to respective successors and assignees.
- i) Neither party will bring a legal action against the other more than two years after the cause of action arose.
- j) This Agreement is nonexclusive. Neither party is a legal representative nor legal agent of the other. Neither party is legally a partner of the other, and neither party is an employee or franchisee of the other, nor does the Agreement create a joint venture between the parties.
- k) Either party may independently develop, acquire, and market materials, products or services that may be competitive with (despite any similarity to) the other party's products or services, subject to the terms and conditions herein. Each party is free to enter into similar agreements with others and may offer to provide any products and/or services to its customers without any obligation to the other party, subject to the terms of this Agreement.
- l) Neither party will assume nor create any obligations on behalf of the other or any representations or warranties about the other, other than those authorized. No right or cause of action for any third party is created by this Agreement or any transaction under it, nor is either party responsible for any third party claims against the other party except as specifically provided herein.
- m) Neither party is responsible for failure to fulfill obligations due to causes beyond its control.
- n) IBM may modify this Agreement at any time. When you sign into PWB following any changes to the Agreement, you will be promoted to accept the most recent version of the Agreement. However, if you do not sign into PWB and you continue to publish your Product listing on an IBM Platform, you will be deemed to accept the new terms. Therefore, you should review this Agreement from time to time to ensure you continue to agree with the terms. You can locate the most recent version of this Agreement by navigating to the "Settings" tab within PWB. In addition, IBM may notify you of material changes to the Agreement by emailing the address provided when you onboarded your Product. If IBM makes material changes to the Agreement that you do not agree with, then you may terminate the Agreement and remove your Product listing(s) from the IBM Platform in accordance with Section 10.2(d) of this Agreement.
